

myCIT myPhD

“my CIT research involved designing and developing assistive vision devices for the visually impaired”

Kieran O’Callaghan - European Student Innovator of the Year 2012

Did you know that CIT researchers:

- Work with research partners worldwide including Cambridge University and MIT
- Collaborate with over 300 Irish and international companies including Intel and EMC
- Generated over €90 million in research funding in the past 5 years

myCIT myCareer

“my business is developing innovative medical technologies through collaboration with commercial and academic institutions to improve patient care.”

Myles Murray - CIT Graduate, Entrepreneur and Founder/CEO of PMD Solutions based in the Rubicon Centre on CIT's campus

Did you know that CIT's Rubicon Centre, through its Enterprise Development Programmes:

- Facilitated over 600 Entrepreneurs
- Generated over €100 million in external investment
- Created over 2,400 jobs

myCIT myPhD

“my PhD research focuses on the identification of emerging organisms responsible for human gastrointestinal disease”

Susan Bullman - SGM Sir Howard Dalton Young Microbiologist of the Year 2012 Finalist

Did you know that CIT researchers:

- Work with research partners worldwide including Cambridge University and MIT
- Collaborate with over 300 Irish and international companies including Intel and EMC
- Generated over €90 million in research funding in the past 5 years